

Digital Marketing Training Institute

SCOPE OF DIGITAL MARKETING

Digital Marketing industry is booming not just in India but all parts of the world. The year 2016 took the industry by surprise with over 1.5 lakh job opportunities in the Digital Marketing domain. Well, the following was a bigger surprise when only the first quarter of 2017 marked for 8 lakh job opportunities.

The surveys conducted by several forums have predicted this number to grow with Digitalisation in the nation. Our Prime Minister has been actively promoting the idea of Digital India. PM Modi's digital India campaign gained massive popularity. The initiative of Government of India is aimed at providing easy services to its natives.

Now imagine when a nation's government is promoting the digital interaction, what do you think will be the Digital Marketing scope in that nation.

Great learning experience. Very supportive and expert trainers. The live projects makes us more confident to work in a company. Yes I can tell you that "I am a Digital Marketer Now"

Dilip Kumar

I had done digital marketing course from another well known institute but I could get to know only an overall idea. With that sort of knowledge, I felt I can't work for a project confidently. Then I came to know about eMarket education and Mr. Ranjan Jena. After talking to him he has given me the confidence and I started my training with him. It was a great experience and now I'm fully confident and I've started doing projects. I would recommend eMarket education for anyone who wants deep knowledge in digital marketing subject other than just a certificate.

Arun Krishna

Best place to learn digital marketing. Here you will get real time experience and end of the day you can choose your company that much of confidence you will get completion of course, please don't miss single class also. All the classes are very interested and very useful and all the teachers are giving more exposure. Thank you ranjan sir and team

Elan Chezhiyan

I'm very glad being a part of Emarket Education. Mr. Ranjan Jena is best in Google Adwords (PPC).I had got perfect Mentor who guide and encourage me every time and clarify all doubts and questions.Thanks sir for your help and support.

Anjali Jaiswal

I always was under the guidance of good teachers. But felt lost in this competitive world when education seem just a business. I feel like I got my guides for my career and not just a teacher. Ranjan and Rajesh sir are the ones on whom you can rely and trust blindly.

Praneetha R

Training is awesome, there was so much of learning. I wish to have joined the training a year back, then I'd definitely been in higher scale by this time.

Boopathi Velu Samy

After associated with emarket education ,I absolutely accept this quote"To attain knowledge add things everyday" , The whole team of emarket education helped me to attain knowledge in the field of digital marketing ,their training curriculum and the live projects which they were allotted to a student is truly beneficial to succeed in career.
